We think relationships matter.

A close community makes learning more meaningful. Maybe you've heard of the "ivory tower." We've never seen one on our campus. Our professors are both accessible and without ego. Maybe because they are as passionate about teaching as they are about research. Possibly because they run every classroom, not TAs.

Perhaps it's due to our intimate class size (25 students on average). We just think it's easier to learn from someone you can easily engage in conversation.

Each Capital student is individually advised by a faculty member who helps with class selection, changing majors, internships, references and jobs.

Stay fit.

The Capital Center is a state-of-the art athletic facility where our varsity athletes work out alongside every other student. Do cardio on the indoor track or elliptical machines, hit the weight room, or join a pickup game of basketball. It's easy to stay in shape when there's a world-class facility that's never too crowded and sits right next to residence halls and classrooms. (The only thing you need to provide is the motivation to visit.)

Eat well.

Our dining options satisfy every type of student – from the picky eater to the most discerning palate. Have a fresh organic salad or a slice of pizza and fries. Stir-fry or made-from-scratch soup. Feeling a little homesick? Parents can send in their favorite home-cooked recipes, and we'll choose some to prepare for dinner (we'll post the student's name for all to see, too). And, whether you prefer three square meals a day or something more flexible, there's an affordable meal plan that fits your schedule.

Study hard.

The Blackmore Library is one of the busiest places on campus (but also the quietest). It is packed with information to satisfy any research project and study carrels for last-minute cramming types and those who like to stay ahead. The library's staff is on hand to help students navigate the stacks. You'll also find the Office of Information Technology here, filled with computer-savvy people ready to help. There's a computer lab here (as well as in every residence hall), which means it won't take a thousand dollar investment just to write a paper on Macbeth. If you have your own laptop, study outdoors—our wireless internet lets you tackle those tough research assignments from anywhere on campus.

Capital Calls Columbus Home.

Our city is the 15th largest in the country. It's Ohio's capital. And it's the headquarters of many Fortune 500 companies — which means opportunities aren't hard to come by. But it's not all business. Columbus has professional sports to watch in every season. An arts community that's unmatched.

Shopping at Easton Town Center or in the Short North, just minutes from campus. And parks, trails, museums and a zoo, all just waiting to be explored.

Welcome to the Neighborhood.

Our suburb is an escape from the city, but it's only minutes away.

Bexley is one of Columbus' most historic neighborhoods. It's home to the governor's mansion. Main Street is marked with restaurants and coffee houses (like Chipotle and Starbucks) and an independent theatre. There are tree-lined streets populated by architecturally stunning homes.

And everything sits just steps away from the residence halls.

A Picturesque Campus.

Capital was founded in 1830, and our history shows on campus.

Mature trees line the paths that connect our impressive academic halls. Under their branches countless spring classes have been taught, and new friendships have been forged. Inside our gates lies our complete campus. Athletic facilities, academic and administration buildings, and student residence halls are all interspersed. You're never more than a short walk from wherever you need to go.

GAME DAY AT CAPITAL

Football games on campus are an experience, especially after Capital University opened a new Bernlohr Stadium as part of the state-of-the-art Capital Center that opened in the fall of 2001. Capital has traditionally ranked among the leaders in home attendance in all of NCAA Division III. The Crusaders have a 38-9 home record since 2001 and have won 23 of their last 27 games at home.

Bernlohr Stadium features seating for 3,000 fans, a hospitality suite, a large press box, a pair of patios overlooking the field and one of the most unique atmospheres in all of college football. Attached to Bernlohr Stadium is The Capital Center that boasts locker rooms, a fitness center, indoor practice facility, offices and sports medicine center.

THE OHIO ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Capital University enters its 85th season as a member of the Ohio Athletic Conference in 2010-2011. The OAC is the nation's third-oldest collegiate athletic conference and from its beginnings in 1902 has never wavered in its focus on the entire development of the student-athlete. The conference's unparalleled success of all of its members on and off the playing field has made the OAC one of the nation's finest college conferences.

The OAC is predated only by the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1888) and the Big Ten (1895). The OAC is older than the Rose Bowl, the World Series and even the NCAA itself and has survived two world wars, the Great Depression, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict. From a modest beginning of six charter members in 1902, the OAC grew to as many as 24 members in the mid-1920s. Through the years a total of 31 colleges and universities at one time or another have been members of the OAC. Currently, the conference consists of 10 members: Baldwin-Wallace College, Capital University, Heidelberg College, John Carroll University, Marietta College, Mount Union College, Muskingum College, Ohio Northern University, Otterbein College and Wilmington College.

Case Tech's football team won the OAC's first conference title with a 5-0-0 record. Outdoor track was added a year later and a third sport, cross country, became a conference sport in 1914. More sports were steadily added to the OAC's repertoire throughout the years, culminating in the addition of women's sports in 1984. The OAC currently sponsors championships in 21 sports, 11 men's and 10 women's. All 10 of the OAC institutions were founded in the 19th century and have long and outstanding academic reputations.

While maintaining these high academic standards, Ohio Athletic Conference athletic teams and athletes consistently have enjoyed a great deal of success on a regional and national level. The athletic competition is viewed not as an end in itself, but as an extension of the educational programs. academic values that make the OAC one of the finest conferences in the nation.

THE CAPITAL CENTER

Built in 2001, The Capital Center is a 126,000-square-foot recreational and athletics complex that includes a 2,100-seat arena, a 3,000-seat Bernlohr Stadium, a 51,000-square-foot multipurpose forum, a 5,000-square-foot fitness center, and a multitude of offices, classrooms and hospitality areas.

The 2,100-seat arena is home to the women's volleyball and men's and women's basketball programs. The arena has a pair of hospitality suites, a pair of broadcast booths and a camera booth with approximately 175 chair-back stadium seats and the remaining bleacher seating.

Football and men's and women's soccer play on a state-of-the-art artificial surface called AstroPlay in the 3,000-seat Bernlohr Stadium. Within a brick grandstand are two observation decks, a hospitality suite and press box. The stadium includes a three-lane track around the field perimeter for fitness and recreation endeavors.

Functionality and usability are the key in the multipurpose forum, as the infield of the NCAA regulation indoor track has four courts with lines for basketball, volleyball and tennis. Suspended from the ceiling is netting that can split the area into a multitude of configurations for a variety of events, as well as a pair of hitting cages for baseball, softball and golf. Part of the forum also makes up 1,200 square feet of the fitness center with a complete cardiovascular area, filled with treadmills, Stairmasters and a universal unit. The remaining 3,800 square feet of the fitness center is a room complete with weight training equipment from Hammer Strength.

The health and sport sciences department calls The Capital Center home with a complete sports medicine and athletics training center, sports science laboratory, classrooms and more than ample space for activity classes. The athletics department also has an office suite with a conference room and administrative work areas.

Like many facilities, it is the small things that separate the adequate from the memorable. The Capital Center with its towers of brick and plaster, terrazzo flooring, hand-painted tile, skylights and enormous walls of glass not only pays homage to the tradition and architecture of the Bexley campus, but also provides a functional and modern place for the university to reach new horizons.

Capital's vision has been simple – to have a center that is an integral part of university life, encompassing health and wellness activities, academic programs, intercollegiate athletics, intramural sports, social activities and community partnerships. The Capital Center embodies that vision and is a testament to the dedication, values and commitment to service of the entire CAP Family. To those past, present and future members of the CAP Family we only have one thing to say – Welcome Home.

COACHING STAFF

HENRY STANFORD

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

ph: (614) 236-6184

hstanfor@capital.edu

Henry Stanford was named the 10th head coach of the Crusader football program on March 11, 2010, after two seasons as an assistant coach with the program.

"Henry Stanford is an energetic young coach with proven success in the Ohio Athletic Conference," said Capital University Director of Athletics Dawn Stewart. "He significantly contributed to our success on the offensive side of the ball and we are excited to follow his vision for developing the whole program."

"I am thankful to Capital for this opportunity and I am excited about being able to help young men obtain their goals both on and off the field," Stanford said. "It is an honor to lead this great football program, and I look forward to continuing its legacy of developing student-athletes who achieve success on the field and in the classroom. The future is bright for Capital football."

Stanford has been on campus since the start of the 2008 season as an assistant coach on the offensive side of the ball, serving as the offensive coordinator last fall. Under his guidance, the CU spread offense ranked second in the OAC in total offense, passing yardage, first downs and fewest sacks allowed while recording just the second 1,000 yard rusher in school history.

Stanford takes over a program that just completed its most successful decade in school history with 72 wins and three trips to the NCAA Tournament, a record that places Capital in the top two football programs in the conference. The Crusaders are also one of just 10 programs in Division III to be nationally ranked in seven consecutive seasons.

"The vision at Capital has always been to pursue greatness in every area of our program. Those efforts will continue with a successful spring ball session over the next few weeks," Stanford said. "We will leverage our position as a top private university in the Midwest with a nationally ranked football program to attract talented student-athletes to attend Capital. Ultimately, we will move into a new era in Capital football."

Stanford also served as the recruiting coordinator of CU football for the past two seasons and has 14 years of collegiate coaching experience dating back to his days as a student assistant coach for Ohio State during the Buckeyes' 1996 and 1998 Big Ten Championship teams. He came to Capital in 2008 after spending the previous four years at Elmhurst College in Illinois, including three seasons as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and offensive coordinator. Overall, Stanford has coached 39 All-Conference selections in the past 14 years. Stanford also coached current Tennessee Titans wide receiver Nate Washington, who played an essential role on two Super Bowl championship teams with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

During his time at Elmhurst, the Blue Jays won 22 games and were near the top of the conference annually in scoring, passing, rushing and third-down conversions. Stanford coached 12 All-Conference selections at Elmhurst to follow up a successful coaching career that has included stints at Tiffin (1999 and 2003), Otterbein (2000 and 2001) and Kenyon (2002). He also served as an intern coach for the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals during training camp in 2007.

"The students that I have worked with make coaching a dream job because they are truly student-athletes who believe in the balance between academics and athletics," Stanford said. "The ability to guide students during the next four years of their lives is exciting. However, our program will help them prepare for a meaningful, well-rounded life."

COACHING STAFF

ROBERT WHITE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ph: (614) 236-6570
rwhite3@capital.edu

Robert White returned to Capital in 2008 for his second stint on the Capital coaching staff.

A 2003 Capital graduate, White played on the offensive line for two seasons before spending four seasons coaching both the offensive and defensive lines.

White spent a season as the offensive line coach at West Virginia Tech and in 2007 was the defensive line coach at Clovis (Calif.) High School.

In 2008, White coached a pair of All-OAC Second Team selections for a Crusader offense that produced the third-best passing offense in the OAC. In addition, Capital surrendered the fourth fewest number of sacks in the OAC.

The success of the offensive line continued in 2009 as three Crusaders earned All-OAC recognition, including the 2009 OAC Offensive Line-man of the Year. Overall, the unit allowed just nine sacks in 282 passing plays, which was the second best in the OAC. The group also paved the way for six 100-yard rushing efforts by Crusader running backs last season, including two each in wins over Heidelberg and Wilmington. The feat marked the first time in school history that Capital had posted two 100-yard rushers in the same game. CU also tallied just its second 1,000-yard rusher in its 86-year program history this fall. White was the position coach for Cory Dutcher, who won the Ken Wable Award as the OAC's Most Outstanding Linemen.

White, who also serves as a gameday manager for spring sports at Capital, lives in Westerville.

CHAD CREAMER

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Ph: (614) 236-6014
dcreamer@capital.edu

Creamer comes to CU after one season on the defensive staff at Austin Peay.

He served as the defensive graduate assistant for the 2009 season at NCAA Football Championship Subdivision member Austin Peay State University. He coached the safeties for a Governor squad that held its opposition to 28 points or less six times in 11 games.

"Chad is a great addition to our coaching staff," Capital Head Coach Henry Stanford said. "His work ethic and character is unmatched. He brings the total package to Capital University."

Creamer started his coaching career as an undergraduate student coach at Ohio State University working alongside current Crusader defensive coordinator Chris Hauser. His career started in 2006 when he interned with the strength and conditioning staff during the Buckeyes' run to the BCS National Championship Game as part of a 12-1 season.

In the 2007 season, Creamer served as a student assistant working with the corners and the scout team offense. He also assisted Hauser with opponent scouting and breakdowns as Ohio State made a return trip to the BCS National Title Game during an 11-2 campaign.

Then in the 2008 season, he worked as a student assistant with OSU defensive coordinator and defensive line coach Jim Heacock during a season that saw the 10-3 Buckeyes take part in the Fiesta Bowl.

Creamer played four seasons as a safety at Greenview High School in Jamestown, Ohio before making his way to Ohio State University. He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Education with an emphasis in Sport and Leisure Studies.

CHRIS HAUSER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Ph: (614) 236-6953
chauser@capital.edu

Hauser comes to CU after four seasons on the defensive staff at Ohio State University.

After starting as the defensive graduate assistant coaching the defensive ends with defensive coordinator Jim Heacock during the 2006 season, Hauser spent the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons as the defensive quality control coach working in conjunction with linebacker coach Luke Fickell to produce one of the top defenses in the nation on a consistent basis.

During his tenure with the Buckeyes, Hauser worked directly with Vernon Gholston who was selected as the sixth overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft. He also mentored a defense that helped OSU win four Big Ten titles as well as the 2010 Rose Bowl Championship. OSU also made appearances in the 2007 and 2008 BCS National Championship Games and the 2009 Fiesta Bowl during his tenure.

Hauser made prior stops at Fort Hays State University (2005) as a wide receivers coach. He was also the defensive graduate assistant coach (2002, 2003, 2004) as his alma mater, the University of Akron, working as a position coach with the defensive line, linebackers and secondary.

The University of Akron graduate played baseball for one season with the Zips before joining the football team as a walk-on. After his football playing career ended due to a knee injury, he joined Akron's coaching staff as a student coach for his last two and a half years on campus. Hauser graduated from Akron in 2002 with a B.S. in Health Education and received his M.S. in Sports Science and Coaching in 2004.

The Columbus native is a 1997 graduate of Bishop Hartley High School where he was a four-year starter and team captain on the gridiron. He was the school's male athlete of the year as a senior and was a two-time All-District and All-League selection in both football and baseball. He also led Bishop Hartley to the 1996 OHSA Division IV State Title.

Hauser and his wife, Whitney, live in Grandview.

JACK RUETTY

ASSISTANT COACH/LINEBACKERS

Jack Ruetty has been on the Capital staff since 2005 as an assistant coach.

Ruetty has seen plenty of Capital football over the years as he watched his son Joel, a three-year starter and All-OAC cornerback. Ruetty also saw his share of OAC football as a player and 1976 alumnus of Muskingum College.

In 2008, he coached the Gene Slaughter Award winner, the top linebacker in the OAC. He coached two more All-OAC selections in 2009.

An algebra, geometry and computer applications teacher at Marysville High School, Ruetty spent 29 years as an assistant coach with stints at Marysville, Dublin Coffman and Dublin Scioto high schools. While at Marysville, Ruetty coached current New York Giants linebacker Chase Blackburn, who was a member of the Giants' Super Bowl XLII championship team.

Ruetty and his family are deeply rooted in the Capital family, as two of his children have graduated from Capital.

COACHING STAFF

KENT SCHOOLFIELD

ASSISTANT COACH/RUNNING BACKS

Veteran football coach and Columbus native Kent Schoolfield has brought a wealth of knowledge to the Crusader football squad since joining the staff in 2006. He was a wide receivers coach at Florida State under Bobby Bowden in a stint that included a trip to the Orange Bowl. Schoolfield was also an assistant coach of a University of Pittsburgh team that earned a spot in the Fiesta Bowl.

Schoolfield has also been an offensive coordinator at both Florida A&M and James Madison during their NCAA Division IAA playoff appearances.

He was also the head coach at Fort Valley State where he guided the Wildcats to three trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs in five seasons. The South Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) also recognized Schoolfield as the Coach of the Year in 1999, guiding the Wildcats to a 10-2 record that included a conference title and trip to the NCAA Playoffs.

Schoolfield, who had a two-year stint at Capital in 2003 and 2004, spent the 2005 season as the offensive coordinator at North Carolina A&T University. He also has served as an assistant coach at Temple and New Mexico State.

A standout player while at Florida A&M, Schoolfield was a two-time All-SIAC selection twice at wide receiver while also suiting up at defensive back. Schoolfield was also a track standout for the Rattlers, as he was named the conference's MVP as a hurdler in both the 110 highs and 400 intermediate events. Schoolfield's decorated college career merited him a place Florida A&M's Hall-of-Fame in 1984.

Schoolfield's athletic prowess caught the eye of the Boston (now New England) Patriots, who selected him in the 1970 NFL Draft.

TIM BOYNTON

ASSISTANT COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE

Tim Boynton has been on the Crusader coaching staff since 2001, and will coach the safeties in 2010 after having previously worked with the defensive line, running backs, and special teams units. Boynton also recruits for CU in the Pickerington and Columbus City Schools areas.

Boynton came to Capital from Otterbein, where he was the defensive line coach for two seasons. After playing a season of college basketball at Lock Haven (Pa.) University, he transferred to Thiel (Pa.) College where he played football for three seasons before graduating in 1996. He started his coaching career as the defensive ends coach at Allegheny (Pa.) College for two years for current Iowa offensive coordinator Ken O'Keefe. During his coaching tenure, Boynton has coached six first-team all-Americans, one defensive player of the year and several all-conference and region players. Boynton has also been a staff member of five squads that have finished in the top-five nationally.

Boynton, an eighth grade history teacher in the Pickerington Local Schools district, resides in Gahanna with his wife, Julie.

JONATHAN SPRING

ASSISTANT COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE/STRENGTH COACH

Jonathan Spring joined the Capital coaching staff in 2008 after a playing career as a four-year letterwinner for the Crusaders on the defensive line.

A 2008 graduate of Capital, Spring was an All-American during his senior season in 2007 and was part of Capital's run of three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2005-2007. Spring was also an All-OAC First Team selection in 2007, tallying a team-best 18 tackles for loss and notching 9.5 of the Crusaders' single-season record 50 sacks. Among Spring's goals is to continue CU's tradition of stellar defensive units and to annually compete for national championships.

Prior to receiving his degree in financial economics, Spring was invited and participated in the Cleveland Browns' free agent rookie camp before returning to Capital to serve as an intern assistant coach for the Crusaders in 2008.

Spring's aspirations to play professional football were realized in 2009, when he signed a one-year contract to play for the Schwabish Hall Unicorns of the German Football League. Spring made the most of his opportunity, pacing the GFL in sacks while being an essential piece of the Unicorns' run to the semifinal game.

After one year of professional football, Spring returned Capital in the fall of 2009 as an assistant coach while focusing primarily on the defensive line and the strength and conditioning program. Spring's strength and conditioning background has been greatly influenced by Nick Kyros, who has worked with several Division I programs as well as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and also assisted with the Crusaders during the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

During the offseason, Spring serves as the gameday manager for Capital's indoor track & field meets.

JARED ZIRILLO

KICKING COACH

Jared Zirillo is a recent addition to the Capital University football coaching staff heading into the 2010 season.

This is Zirillo's first university coaching assignment. He trained with retired Dallas Cowboy kicker and Super Bowl XXX champion Chris Bonioli, and helped coach many aspiring placekickers alongside Dick Pierce, Mike Nugent, and Jeff Wilkins. Zirillo was a placekicker at Capital University for three seasons before graduating in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in business.

Zirillo believes in the philosophy that each student athlete must "pursue greatness," and will encourage players to reach beyond their goals as they are challenged in their personalized training. Furthermore, Zirillo exemplifies the importance of education as he continues his own as a Capital student, working towards his Master's in Business Administration.

Zirillo currently is an auditor employed by the State of Ohio Auditor's Office in Columbus. Prior to coming to Capital, Zirillo played varsity football and soccer at East Liverpool High School. He graduated from there in 2003.

COACHING STAFF

SCOTT MCINTYRE

ASSISTANT COACH/OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Scott McIntyre began as an assistant coach at Capital in 2008, working with the offensive line.

A veteran of more than 30 years in the coaching ranks, Coach "Mac" spent his first 29 years on the sidelines at the high school level.

In 2007, McIntyre completed a five-year run as the head coach at Grove City High School. He mentored the Greyhounds to two trips to the OHSAA Division I playoffs and won an OCC Central Division Championship in 2005. Prior to serving as head coach, McIntyre was the offensive coordinator at Grove City for 17 seasons. In his 29 years of coaching high school football, McIntyre's teams made a total of 11 playoff appearances and won 11 conference championships.

Among the Greyhounds' standouts who thrived under McIntyre was 1996 Mr. Football recipient Derrick Combs, who would later earn Team MVP honors at Ohio State in 2000 before suiting up for the 2002 AFC Champion Oakland Raiders. McIntyre also groomed defensive tackle Bill Fannin at Grove City, who would later become an All-American for the Crusaders in 1992. Another Greyhound who would later shine in purple and white was wide receiver Derick Alexander, who earned All-America status for Capital in 2006. In all, McIntyre coached eight All-Ohio offensive linemen while at Grove City.

A 1979 graduate of Muskingum College, McIntyre was a teammate of Crusader linebackers coach Jack Ruetty and enjoys the challenge of returning to OAC football. McIntyre and his wife, Carolyn, live in Grove City with their two sons, Doug and Kevin. His daughter Michelle lives in the Peoria area with McIntyre's granddaughter, Kiera.

THOMAS SUSTERSIC

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Thomas Sustersic will make his collegiate coaching debut on the Capital University coaching staff in the fall of 2010. Sustersic was previously a varsity assistant and freshman head coach at Revere High School in 2007 and 2008. He is also currently in Ohio State's business education program and looks to earn his teaching license in March of 2011.

A 2007 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College with a degree in marketing and economics, Sustersic played free safety and punted for a Yellow Jacket squad that competed in the NCAA Playoffs in 2003.

Sustersic also enjoyed a successful prep career at Revere that saw him line up primarily as a quarterback, kicker and defensive back for four seasons, earning Honorable Mention All District honors in 2002 while being a First Team All Suburban League selection in 2001. Sustersic was also a four-year member of the Minutemen's wrestling and track programs.

Aside from coaching, Sustersic has also worked as a marketing and sales representative for Gateway Recycling.

Originally from Richfield, Sustersic currently resides in Grandview.

BRETT WELCH

ASSISTANT COACH/LINEBACKERS

A 2009 graduate of Capital with a degree in finance, Brett Welch enters his second season on the Crusader football coaching staff. Welch was an intern assistant coach in 2009, assisting with the linebackers unit.

Welch suited up for the Crusaders as a linebacker from 2005-2008, and was an essential piece of several record-setting Crusader defenses. A three-year letter winner who started as an outside linebacker in 2007 and 2008, Welch was part of the 2007 defensive unit that was among the nation's finest in total defense and sacks while recording four shutouts and allowing only 146 points. Welch was also a part of a CU football class that reached the playoffs three years in succession.

Prior to coming to Capital, Welch was a linebacker at Marietta High School, where he graduated from in 2005.

NICK EIPPERT

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Nick Eippert is embarking on his second season on Capital's coaching staff and first season as the team's director of Football Operations. Among Eippert's duties will be assisting in coaching the quarterbacks for the Crusaders.

In his first year with the Purple and White, Eippert worked in the Offensive Quality Control realm, charting Capital's offensive plays during the 2009 season. Prior to coming to Capital, Eippert researched recruiting databases as a volunteer in OSU-Marion's Athletic Department in 2007.

The 2006 graduate of Upper Sandusky High School will be assisting with official and unofficial visits with recruits on campus while also coordinating recruiting trips, creating and designing mailings for recruits, and evaluating prospects. Eippert will also be an essential part of Capital's youth and high school camps.

A sport and leisure studies major at Ohio State who looks to graduate in December of this year, Eippert will also be an academic encourager who will monitor the classroom progress of Crusader football student-athletes on a daily basis.

Eippert, a passionate sports individual who brings a tireless work ethic to the Crusader coaching staff, played golf and tennis while attending Upper Sandusky High School.

Former Capital University president Josiah Blackmore presents Roger Welsh with a football in honor of winning the 1987 OAC title.

Visit. Apply.

Coming to campus is a great way to get to know Capital better. You can sit in on a class, get to know students and professors, take a guided tour, and enjoy lunch in the Capital Court. For a personally planned visit, give us at least two weeks' notice of your plans. Campus visits take place between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. And we're open for select Saturday visits and special events. Go to www.capital.edu/visit for details.
